

Kathy Corse

AUTHOR & MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKER

"Great motivational speakers are made, not born."

Kathy's decades of experience as an executive in leadership development and customer service has gained her many followers. After completing her novel, "All That I Had," she left the corporate world to return to the stage. Her delivery style and content inspires listeners to see opportunities even during challenging times and to take action to make a change for the better. Although each audience is unique, Kathy's knowledge and motivation serves all, leaving listeners thinking well after her presentation.

About Kathy

Kathy shines at making people feel seen and impacted, no matter how big or small the room. Listeners are encouraged to act right away to make a positive impact. Kathy has been speaking, inspiring, and positively engaging with people her whole life as a delightful storyteller, specializing in boosting motivation and morale. A professionally trained speaker, Kathy has delivered 100+ talks to groups of every size. From a 10-person book club to a 100-person professional business organization to an audience of 10,000 at national sales conferences.

Kathy has received many honors during her career including winning "Miss Spirit" as a teenager, to accepting the prestigious Positive Influence Award as a seasoned VP for a large retail company. More recently, Kathy received the Woman of Achievement Award from the Broome County Status of Women Council for her dedication of time, talent, and service to the community. Kathy's goal is to motivate everyone around her and to give back to the community whenever possible.

Praise for Kathy's Speaking

"Kathy geared her presentation perfectly to our event. The message she relayed to the staff was important and one that touched our hearts. It was especially beneficial during these trying times with Covid. 5 months has passed since our event and people still mention how much they enjoyed it."

Lisa Krey, Executive Assistant, Handicapped Children's Association

"Kathy Corse has improved the lives of many over her long career in leadership development and customer service. Every company that has worked with Kathy has been better for it. I was blessed to be on her team for 10+ years and on several additional projects. On every occasion, I learned something meaningful from Kathy and her best-of-the-best leadership qualities."
